Garwood Hunting Club takes great pride in offering you the hunt of a lifetime. We have access to some of the best waterfowl habitat in Wharton, Colorado, and Lavaca counties; we put you right in the heart of the “Rice Belt” of Texas. The Garwood area is home to one of the largest concentrations of wintering waterfowl in the United States. Here at Garwood Hunting Club, we specialize in hunting all species of ducks and geese, as well as sandhill cranes. Our hunting season usually begins in mid-September (early teal season) and runs through February, with abundant numbers of ducks and geese in the area throughout the season. Don't miss out on some of the finest waterfowl hunting the state of Texas has to offer with Garwood Hunting Club.

Experienced Guides...

All our hunts utilize qualified, experienced guides that spend countless hours scouting fields to ensure you the best possible results for you and your group. We know your experience with Garwood Hunting Club will make you want to come back for another great hunting adventure.

Lodging and Meals...

Relax in comfort and privacy after a big day of hunting in our clean lodge equipped with a large dining area, satellite TV and pool table. Meals prepared by the lodge cook, are included in the price and can be tailored to your request.

Equipment...

Bring your shotgun, ammunition, camouflage clothing, waders, rain parka, flashlight, insect repellent, hunting license and proper waterfowl stamps. You will also need ice chests to transport your game and don't forget your camera. In the event that you forget anything, rest assured Garwood Hunting Club won't leave you stranded.

Bird Processing...

Upon completion of your hunt, we make available complete bird processing. Our pickers will clean, wash, bag and prepare your birds for transport.

Reservations...

Our hunts fill up fast, so call to reserve your preferred time and date early. Hunts are booked on a first-come first-served basis. We will do our best to accommodate your schedule.

Flexible Hunts...

Our goal at Garwood Hunting Club is to cater specifically to your groups' needs. Hope to see you soon.
